

Skills and Knowledge
How do ancient stories influence modern celebrations?	How do the five pillars help Muslims to live a good life ?
Children can recall stories from different traditions and explain how these affect people's lives. They will: • Recognise that human beings, including groups of religious people, tell stories that help them grapple with some of the big questions of life. • Understand that many of these stories are well-known as they have been handed down over generations.	Children can give examples of some role models/leaders of religions and worldviews. They can explain how values of right and wrong are shared across different religions and worldviews. They will: • Give examples of key teachings of Islam and recognise the different ways these are interpreted by believers. • Express ideas about how Muslim beliefs have an impact on the life of believers. • Explain how a Muslim might follow the example of Prophet Mohammed.
Why do the lives of the Gurus inspire Sikh believers?
Children can give examples of amazing, puzzling or mysterious experiences from a wider range of religions and worldviews. They can give examples of stories about people whose experience or encounter changed their lives. They will: • Give examples of Sikh beliefs and stories about their Gurus. • Describe Sikh practices relating to the Guru Granth Sahib. • Explain and give reasons for Sikh values e.g. equality, honesty.	