

Skills and Knowledge
How might pilgrimage transform people's lives?	What do Bible narratives say about the Covenants?
Children can explain how some people have amazing, puzzling or mysterious experiences that make them ask big questions about life and, in some cases, have made them change their lives or given them new insights to share with others. They will: • Describe and explain some amazing, puzzling or mysterious experiences associated with places of pilgrimage. • Suggest reasons why special places and journeys make people ask big questions about life. • Express ideas about new insights pilgrims might gain from their journey.	Children can explain how people from different religions / worldviews express what they understand about the world through stories. They will: • Define the word 'covenant' and give an example. • Summarise narratives about Moses, the Ten Commandments, the Kingdom (including David) and Jesus, making connections between stories and the idea of a covenant between God and the people. • Compare and contrast aspects of Christianity, Judaism and Islam, especially in relation to Abraham and Jesus.
How and why do Jewish communities celebrate their festivals?
Children can give examples to show how communities are influenced by their traditional religions /worldviews. They understand that different religions / worldviews, in different combinations, are influential in different countries. They will: • Summarise ideas about Jewish festivals and how and why they are commemorated. • Give a considered response to how and why Jewish people follow the commandments set out in the Torah • Choose appropriate questions for an interview.	